

To the FCC:

I attach a portion of my recent message to Sinclair Broadcasting Group. Will the FCC enforce the law to protect the public interest from the corrupting power of large broadcasters with a political agenda?

TO

CEO David Smith

Sinclair Broadcasting Group

I view your announced plans to broadcast the anti-John Kerry propaganda film "Stolen Honor" within 60 days of the 2004 presidential election to be an illegal use of the public airwaves and a violation of your obligation to serve the public interest that is mandated by your federal broadcast licenses. A film having previously available subject matter that is 25 or 30 years old cannot possibly be "news content."

If you go forward with such a blatant piece of partisan political message in support of President Bush's re-election campaign, it is my sincere hope that your broadcast licenses will be revoked for your failure to meet the bare minimum public duty you owe the people of the USA in return for your free and exclusive right to use public airwaves.

How can you feed at the public trough and simultaneously spoil it with your foul waste?

Have you no shame?
